WWII Veterans at the Louisiana Military Museum

Who: Approximately 75 World War II Veterans and graduates of Selman Field Navigation School

What: Please join the Secretary of State and the city of Ruston in honoring the veterans of World War II. Hear the tales of heroism from the men and women who fought for our country. Join the entire state of Louisiana in remembering these heroes.

When: April 29th from one until three o'clock in the afternoon

Where: Louisiana Military Museum in Ruston

The Louisiana Military Museum in Ruston is home to thousands of remarkable artifacts and memorabilia from every war fought by the men and women of this country. See guns, ammunition, uniforms, medals and pictures from the battlefields. Secretary of State Fox McKeithen calls the Ruston Military Museum “the best kept secret of Louisiana and the most remarkable capsule of history to view from any war.”
